AMUSEMENTS

JACK PICKFORD AT THE BUTLER TONIGHT.

Love affairs can no longer drive men to drink. However, in "Burglar by Proxy," Jack Pickford's latest picture, which will be shown at the Butler tonight, love drives a young man to burglary. Taking the part of Jack Robin, in love with Dorothy Muson, Pickford is taken into the Mason home apparently unconscious with his head resting on a blow-out automobile tire in front of Dorothy's house. Several days later Dorothy s awakened at misnight to find lack in her boudoir. Covering him with a revolver she informs him that he stole valuable business plans while he was in the home before that any amendment to the treaty of and that she has absolutely no respect for him.
